

IMPARTIALITY POLICY

(In accordance with ISO/IEC 17020:2012 – Clause 4.1)

1. Commitment to Impartiality

ISA ICSA Private Limited is committed to conducting all inspection activities in an independent, impartial, and objective manner. The organization ensures that all inspection decisions are based solely on objective evidence and are free from any commercial, financial, or other pressures that could compromise impartiality.

Top Management demonstrates its commitment to impartiality by ensuring that policies, procedures, and organizational structure safeguard independence in all inspection activities.

2. Independence as a Type A Inspection Body

ISA ICSA Private Limited operates as a Type A Inspection Body, maintaining full independence from the parties involved in the items inspected.

The organization ensures that:

- It is not engaged in design, manufacture, supply, installation, use, or maintenance of inspected items.
- It does not provide consultancy services related to the items it inspects.
- It is not linked to any entity that could compromise impartiality.

3. Identification and Management of Impartiality Risks

ISA ICSA Private Limited systematically identifies, analyzes, and documents risks to impartiality arising from:

- Organizational relationships
- Personnel activities
- Financial interests
- External relationships and outsourcing

A documented Risk Analysis (Conflict of Interest Register) is maintained and reviewed periodically. Where risks are identified, appropriate mitigation measures are implemented to eliminate or minimize such risks.

4. Impartiality Committee

An independent Impartiality Committee is established to safeguard impartiality.

The Committee:

- Includes external members representing industry, technical experts, and independent stakeholders
- Is free from operational involvement in inspection activities

Reviews:

- Impartiality risks
- Conflict of interest situations
- Complaints related to impartiality
- Reports directly to Top Management

5. Non-Discriminatory Practices

ISA ICSA Private Limited ensures that:

- Services are accessible to all clients within the defined scope
- No undue financial or other conditions are imposed
- There is no discrimination, including:
 - Preferential treatment
 - Delays or acceleration for specific clients

All clients are treated equally under the same rules and procedures.

6. Conflict of Interest and Personnel Integrity

All personnel, including inspectors, technical experts, reviewers, and committee members:

- Shall declare any potential conflict of interest prior to assignment
